Dear Sir/Madam,

Sub: Conducting Book Exhibition for two days from 14th to 15th December 2022 at the Library annex building of Ananda Rangapillai Library, PU - Intimation - Reg.

Greetings from Ananda Rangapillai Library.

The Central Library, Pondicherry University, in collaboration with the University empanelled book vendors, is conducting a Book Exhibition for two days from 14th to 15th December 2022 at the Library annex building to provide an open platform for the University faculty to visit, choose, review, recommend and procure the books from the vendors' display. During the exhibition, the empanelled vendors set up stalls with their latest editions of published books, including textbooks and references from leading publishers like Springer, Elsevier, CRC Press, Cambridge University Press, Chicago Press, Harvard University Press, Macmillan International, MIT Press, Wiley, World Scientific, Bloomsbury, etc. to attract visitors. The faculty members and students of Pondicherry University can access/review each book and recommend strengthening the physical book collection of the Central Library and the Departmental Libraries, which are on the campus and outside in Port Blair and Karaikal.

The faculty members may choose the books related to their respective course curriculum directly by going through the content of the books, and thus selected titles of the books shall be sent to the Central Library with their endorsement/recommendation in the prescribed form (which was already forwarded to the Head's of corresponding schools/department/center through e-mail) for purchase with the fund sanctioned by the University. The expenditure incurred for purchasing the books will be debited to their respective heads of account earmarked under the school/department/center.
