E-CIRCULAR

Ananda Rangapillai Library in collaboration with ProQuest organizes a training on “Amplifying Your Research using ProQuest Resources” on Monday 16th May 2022 from 3:00 PM to 5:00 PM at Conference Room, Library Annexe.

The program will focus on creating awareness among the various users about the ProQuest resources and addressing various issues and challenges faced by them during the literature search. Some important updates which are introduced in the flagship product- ProQuest Dissertation & These will be shared which will provide new insightful ways to use dissertations and theses for their various research activities.

Key benefits of the training

- ✓ Understand the need of using the ProQuest Dissertations & Theses Global database in your research work.
- ✓ Explore & Discover relevant related resources from the Author and Literary Movement pages from ProQuest One Literature database
- ✓ Locate Academic Videos across subjects starting from Anthropology to Zoology from the Academic Video Online Database
- ✓ Evaluate and refine the search results & apply some best practices to get relevant literature for your Research, Teaching, and Learning activities
- ✓ See the ProQuest Support for you

All the Faculty members, Research Scholars and Students are request to attend the training program. In case of any queries, please contact Dr. Shibu K. M., Assistant Librarian, Ananda Rangapillai Library.

(University Librarian)

- ✓ Copy to: The Systems Manager & Head, Computer Centre – with a request to float the Circular in the University website.
