E- CIRCULAR

Selection of General Knowledge and Competitive Examination Books

The Ananda Rangapillai Library, Pondicherry University, is planning to procure new books on General Knowledge and competitive examinations to strengthen the library collection and support the career preparation needs of the university community.

In this connection, the respective books are displayed in the Acquisition Section of the Central Library for review.

All Faculty Members, Research Scholars, and Students are kindly requested to visit the Central Library and select suitable titles in person on or before 13 March 2026.

Your suggestions and recommendations will be valuable in developing a useful and relevant collection for the University.
